This debate draws together debates in the metaphysics of time, Gods relation to time and creation, and freewill. The topics discussed in this book, and the chapters on those topics, draw our attention to the cutting-edge work being done in the philosophy of time and related topics. The give and take provides the reader with at least two sides of an issue and leaves the discussion open for readers to arrive at their own conclusion. It demonstrates the importance of time in contemporary debates in metaphysics.2.
