The Bible is filled with the promises of God. From Genesis to Revelation we read of normal people that received the promises of God. These promises are sealed by the highest authority, God's word. In Hebrews 6:13 it says, "For when God made a promise to Abraham since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself." Jesus promises us that we will never be blotted out of the book of life. Once it is written, it is sealed with his promise to keep it forever. Our salvation is guaranteed, Jesus will confess our name before the Father and the angels. Edward Antonio is the Founder of Elevating Your Life and a student of theology and church history. He lives in Orange County, CA, and is part of the Harvest Christian Fellowship. The promises of God are powerful and awesome to grasp. I pray that these scriptures about God's promises were helpful to you today.Â 9:35 Jesus was going through all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness. 10:1 Jesus summoned His twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every kind of disease and every kind of sickness. Promises You Can Stand On Through Thick and Thin The Bible is filled with hundreds of what the apostle Peter called 'exceeding great and precious promises': definite, explicit declarations God has made that you can count on. In All the Promises of the Bible, Dr. Herbert Lockyer discusses the nature of God's promises—their substance - simplicity - surety - source - security - scope. Lockyer's in-depth look at the scope of God's promises arranges them in categories that cover the full array of human concerns, from the spiritual to the material and the corporate to the ...Â This book has already effected some changes in the way I think about God's word. Thus the power behind holding on to the promises made to men of old and to us as well. I am applying it in every aspect
