Surrey Research Insight Deposit Agreement

Agreement to deposit your paper and give permission to make it available on open access: please note you are granting your permission not your publisher’s.

Covered Work

I would like to deposit my material in the open access repository of the University of Surrey (Surrey Research Insight Open Access). Research referred to below as “Work” is covered by this agreement and when I deposit my Work in the future, whether personally or through an assistant or other agent, I agree to the following:

Non-exclusive Rights

Rights granted to SRI Open Access through this agreement are entirely non-exclusive. I am free to publish the Work in its present version or future versions elsewhere. I agree that SRI Open Access may, without changing content, translate the Work to any medium or format for the purpose of secure storage.

Deposit in SRI Open Access

I understand that work deposited in SRI Open Access will be accessible to a wide variety of people and institutions - including automated agents - via the World Wide Web. I understand that once the Work is deposited, a citation to the Work will always remain visible, although the author retains the right to update the Work. Removal of the item can be made after discussion with SRI Open Access.

I agree as follows:

- that I have the authority of the authors to make this agreement, and to hereby give SRI Open Access the right to make available the Work in the way described above;
- that I have exercised reasonable care to ensure that the Work is original, and does not to the best of my knowledge infringe upon anyone's copyright.
Dr Sarvarian joined the School as a lecturer in September 2012 after completing his doctorate in public international law at University College London. His written evidence has been cited in reports on intervention by the House of Commons Defence Select Committee and on succession to membership of the European Union by the Scottish Parliament European Union and External Relations Committee. He has been influential in the development of relations between the Republic of Armenia and the International Criminal Court, including the constitutional process of ratification of the ICC Statute. The Law and Technology Hub is a new initiative at the University of Surrey School of Law, where students, academics, business leaders and legal practitioners forge close links to work on complex digital transformation and law related research topics. The Hub provides opportunities for collaboration with partners from both in and outside the university, aiding digital legal education, academic research, local business and community support, and, ultimately, career development for students.
