Howard Schott and Anthony Baines’ definitive catalogues of the musical instruments in the Victoria and Albert Museum, reissued as a single volume in 1998, have proved their worth by selling out. This 2002/3 edition is a reprint of the 1998 edition, which leaves the text and illustrations virtually unchanged. It has been made possible through generous donations from the John Radcliffe Trust and the Parnassus Foundation, courtesy of Jane and Raphael Bernstein. Catalogue of the Naval and Marine Engineering Collection in the Museum .. Abstract: In the aftermath of the success of London’s Great Exhibition of 1851, the decision was made by Parliament to use the profits to purchase 86 acres south of Hyde Park and turn it into a permanent collection of educational and artistic institutions for the public. The first of these was the South Kensington Museum, a trailblazing display of Britain’s manufactured achievements.
