"It is God and God alone that will satisfy the longings of our heart." - Matt Chandler.

So, how do we continue to prioritize missions (especially international missions) in our churches while we wait for countries to reopen and travel to resume? - Chad Keck.

If the Great Commission is still the mandate of the church, we must learn to participate in God’s mission in new ways and with new methods. Facts & Trends. 4 Ways to Approach Missions in a Pandemic | Facts & Trends.

I approached the book with an open mind and a willingness to listen to the arguments for a great commission resurgence. However, now that the book has been written, and we are a few years into the future, I see very little impact of this book. The Great Commission. Don Fanning Liberty University Baptist Theological Seminary. Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.liberty.edu/jlbts. Part of the Missions and World Christianity Commons, and the Practical Theology Commons.

From eternity past Gods plans and heavens interest in human events have pointed toward the redemption of sinful man and a cursed creation. As humans we can never imagine the full significance of Calvarys agony under Gods wrath for sins payment and the exaltation as the victorious risen Savior finishes His earthly task planned from before Creation. Nothing has ever been more important to the God of heaven. There is a time to worship and a time to finish the task, thus the text adds, Now while they were going (28:11).