Welcome to the third edition of 50 Hikes in the North Georgia Mountains. What a pleasure it was to add; some new hikes and update the information so that your valuable time can be spent on the trail rather than on trying to find a hike that suits you. Heading to the North Georgia Mountains was a natural extension of my camping, hiking, and paddling obsession that began in the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee in the early 1980s. My first trip in Georgia was to Cloudland Canyon, led by Calvin Milam. More trips covered the Cohutta Mountains and the ridges where the Appalachian Trail (AT) headed from Springer Mountain toward its destination in Maine. Oh, to relive those days of seeing new sights for the first time! Mountain treks or beach walks, remote western waterfalls or hidden trails, you'll find hikes for all skills and abilities. Leonard M. Adkins has walked the length of the Appalachian Trail four times and has logged more than 16,000 miles in backcountry areas of North America, Europe, and the Caribbean. The author of numerous books on hiking and the outdoors, he has been awarded the National Outdoor Book Award and a Lowell Thomas Travel Journalism award. Adkins lives in Virginia.
